Title: Charlotte’s Web Layered Curriculum

Subject Matter Emphasis and Level: 3rd Grade Reading

Author: Kelsey VanOverschelde

School District: Ethan

Email: Kelsey.VanOverschelde@k12.sd.us

Brief Description of the Lesson/Unit:
This lesson is a Layered Curriculum lesson using Charlotte’s Web.

SD Content Standards:
(Grade 3 Reading)
Charlotte’s Web
Layered Curriculum
Grades 3-4

C LEVEL – EACH ACTIVITY IS WORTH A MAXIMUM OF 15 POINTS. CHOOSE 4 ACTIVITIES TO COMPLETE.

- Make a diorama of your favorite scene
- Make a puppet of your favorite character
- Complete a story web using the independent reading sheet
- Describe each character using our Literature Circle sheet
- For every chapter complete a vocabulary sheet using the Literature Circle word watcher sheet
- Make a timeline of the story
- Make a banner for the story using our independent reading banner format
- Complete a cause and effect sheet using our independent reading sheet for the story
- At the end of each chapter write in your journal and summarize the chapter

B LEVEL - EACH ACTIVITY IS WORTH A MAXIMUM OF 15 POINTS. CHOOSE 1 ACTIVITY

- Complete a cereal box book report
- Choose 2 classmates and act out two of your favorite scenes from the story
- On the computer make a power point and have a slide for each, title of the book and author, setting, describing main characters, plot, description of your favorite scene, why you liked or disliked the book

A LEVEL - CHOOSE ONLY 1 ACTIVITY, 20 POINTS MAXIMUM

- After reading the book watch the movie Charlotte’s Web and fill out a Venn Diagram and write a compare and contrast paragraph about the two
- On the computer make a brochure advertising why people should read this book