Above is a website where you can go and purchase the Children's Mathematics-Cognitively Guided Instruction book that you will want to purchase for each of your teacher's to have for professional development this fall. In visiting with the current math leaders in your building, they believed that this was a valuable resource to have. The price on this website is $22.50 plus some shipping (plan on 10% of your order).

Or you can order them from the Reader's Den in Mitchell $25.00 + some shipping.

I understand that some of you are retiring and some moving on to other positions in different districts, please forward this on to your new principal.

Thank you for your assistance.
